

POLITICAL PARTIES, ELECTIONS AND REFERENDUMS ACT 2000

Under the provisions of the above Act, a Candidate may not use a description on their nomination paper which is likely to lead voters to associate them with a registered political party, unless the description is authorised by a certificate issued by or on behalf of the party's registered nominating officer.

You may only complete Part B, if you have Part A completed and signed.

PART A - CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY

I hereby certify that the Candidate as shown on the front of this Nomination Paper is a candidate of the Party at this election, and I authorise the use of the following description on their Nomination Paper :-

.....
(State description, to be IDENTICAL to the description used on the Nomination Paper)

Signed :
(NOMINATING OFFICER)
